

Singing Medicine with LAEELA

www.laeela.com

MantraSoundMagic - MedicineSongs & Kundalini Power

Join us for a heartmelting and empowering Bhakti music journey full of magic sounds and touching mantras. Dive deep into this sacred space with us and feel the powers of the soundcurrent, of ancient songs, uplifting movements and many voices - melting into one!

LAEELA are Neelam and David Mages. When they met in 2003 on a rainbow gathering they both had already fallen in love with mantra singing. Ever since mantra, bhajan and kirtan singing has been an essential part of their way. For many years they've been sharing that love in chanting circles, concerts, retreats and on spiritual events.

Neelam & David's music exudes a charming calm and opens a deep meditative space...

The wonderful arrangements, the light, bright mood, the beautiful female-male singing, the omnipresent radiated peace and confidence and not least the different instrumentations arise naturally as from a single river.

Their music combines professionalism, emotion and dedication. They melt their love for Bhakti Yoga with musical styles from around the world. Neelam is a passionate singer and Kundalini yoga teacher - she touches through the warm and clear sound of her voice and her open, authentic, warm nature. David is a gifted multi-instrumentalist and has the extraordinary talent to be able to play countless instruments of diverse cultures in a sensitive and expressive way.

Singing and listening to Neelam and David is balm for the soul - whether powerful kirtans, touching mantras or free soul singing - immerse yourself, let go, recharge your batteries, come home ...

